In winning these contests, the boys and girls set up many fine records. Cunningham said. Nell Colquitt grew more than 7,770 pounds of vegetables on her one-acre garden. She grew 25 different varieties of vegetables. Young Kinchen produced 114 bushels of corn on his acre, and both the winning boys in the cotton growing contest produced well over a ton of seed cotton on their acre.

SIDNEY JOYNER IS ELECTROCUTED

Bulloch County Man Went to Rescue of a Colored Family During Fire at Oliver.

Oliver, Ga., Nov. 29.—Sidney Joyner, who lives across the Ogeechee river from Oliver, in Bulloch county, was electrocuted here early this morning while he was trying to help a family of colored people save some of their things from their burning home.

The fire started about 2 o'clock and had gained considerable headway before it was discovered. Mr. Joyner and two companions went to the rescue as James Macon, colored, and members of his family were rushing out of the house as the roof collapsed.

The Georgia Power Company's trunk wire was strung along the road close to the burning house, and Mr. Joyner rushed up hoping to render aid in the emergency, a section of the wire which had burned in two fell on him. He was knocked down and rendered unconscious when Dr. R. R. Wagner examined him a short time later he was found to be dead. One of the other white men narrowly escaped, being only a few feet away when the wire fell.

Representatives of the power company were here today making a thorough investigation of the tragedy.

BULLOCH TIMES (STATESBORO NEWS—STATESBORO EAGLE)

STATESBORO, GA., THURSDAY, DEC. 3, 1936 VOL. 46—NO. 88

MINIATURE EGG IS PRESENTED TO EDITOR

A curio in the shape of a miniature twin egg was brought to the Times office during the week by Mrs. W. D. Dyer, of Oliver Route 2. The combined eggs, shaped like a humpy-dumpy, were scarcely more than an inch in length, one about half as long as the other. Broken open, they were found each to be complete though growing together at the ends.

POISON IS FATAL TO HOSEA DURDEN

Brooklet Man Ends Life With Strychnine Saturday Morning.

Hosea J. Durden, 53, WPA worker, succumbed to a dose of crystal strychnine at his home at Brooklet Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. His family is convinced the poison was taken with suicidal intent, but Mr. Durden, although he died in the presence of his wife and several neighbors, did not explain why he desired to die.

The strychnine was purchased at a drug store Saturday morning and when Mr. Durden awoke the poison he signed the purchase book, explaining he desired to kill insects in his chicken house. It is evident he consumed the strychnine enroute home, for he walked into his dwelling, left the morning mail for his family, went into his room and lay across a bed. His wife found him in bed after hearing a peculiar groan and upon investigation found him violently ill. He explained to her he had taken strychnine. Two doctors were called and were of the opinion a coroner's investigation would not be necessary.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Nettie Rowell Durden; four sons, Earl and Hubert Durden, of Savannah; Carl Durden, of Daytona Beach and Alton Durden, of Dublin, Ga.; two daughters, Mrs. M. L. Evans, of Brunswick, and Miss Ora Durden, of Daytona Beach; father, Mr. J. M. Durden, of Albany; two sisters, Mrs. A. W. Evans, of Soperton, and Mrs. Joe Todd, of Vidalia, and several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of his brother, Loran Durden, in Statesboro, after which the body was carried to Swainsboro for interment.

STATESBORO WOODMEN To Elect Officers

The annual election of officers of Statesboro Camp No. 158, Woodmen of the World, will be held at the next regular meeting, Thursday evening, December 10th, in the Masonic Hall over Barnes Funeral Home. A supper will be served in the hall at this meeting. The meeting hour having recently been changed to 7:30 o'clock, all members are urged to be on time.

STATESBORO BONDS BRING GOOD PRICE

As an evidence of the credit standing of the city of Statesboro, it will be interesting to learn that Tuesday's public sales two municipal bonds, the property of the estate of the late R. L. Durrence, valued at $1,000 each and due January 1, 1938, brought $30 and $32, respectively, above par. The bonds bear 5 per cent interest and carried accrued interest since January 1, 1936; therefore the value of the bonds will be $1,100 each when due.

New Bulloch Hospital Pressed Into Service

Bulloch county's new county-owned hospital, not yet completed, is being occupied under a temporary arrangement with the management of the old privately owned hospital, which closed its doors Monday morning. Fittingly enough, the first inmate of the new hospital, carried there Tuesday morning, is a county employee, Boze Fountain, a guard at the chain-gang, who was injured Saturday night in a difficulty at the camp.

Furniture from the old hospital has been installed in the new building, and will be used under temporary arrangements until completion of the new structure.

LOCAL CITIZENS HURT IN ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lee Both Receive Broken Legs When Cars Collide at Thomasville.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lee, seriously hurt in an automobile accident on the highway in the suburb of Thomasville early Wednesday afternoon, arrived at their home here late Thursday and are reported resting satisfactorily. Both sustained broken right legs. Mr. Lee's being broken above the knee and Mrs. Lee's below the knee. Their son, Winfield, driving the car, escaped serious injury. Mr. Lee has been a cripple from infancy and goes on crutches, which makes the accident all the more regrettable.

The Lees were returning from Brewton, Ala., where they had visited a brother of Mr. Lee's. At a point just in the city limits of Thomasville two trucks dashed from a cross road into the highway, one towing the other with a chain. Obstructions by the roadside hid the rear truck. Young Lee sought to cut in close behind the front truck and was caught between the two. The Lee car was only slightly damaged.

The corner of the trucks is said to be a prosperous business man of Cairo. He visited the Lee's at the Thomasville hospital Wednesday and gave them every assistance with assurances all necessary expenses would be paid by him. Mr. Lee is tax receiver of Bulloch county.

Oscar, the host of the Waldorf Astoria in New York City, warns the married woman about risking the affections of her husband by serving his delicatessen dinners. But some times even the oldest sardine is less deadly than the bride's biscuits.

YOUNG LADY HAD PECULIAR DREAM

Related That Dead Mother Came for Her and Died During the Day.

Miss Grace Sims, 15-year-old daughter of J. H. Sims, who died at the family home near Stillson, Thanksgiving day, was buried Friday afternoon at Lane's church.

E. L. Barnes, the officiating undertaker, tells this interesting incident: The young lady lost her mother in her very early infancy, and retained only a vague memory of her face. On Thanksgiving morning the girl awakened in her usual good health and good spirits and told her father, "Daddy, I had a dream last night about mother; I dreamed she came and talked with me, and told me she had come to carry me to her."

The young lady cheerfully pursued her duties about the house throughout almost the entire day. Suddenly she collapsed, and was dead when members of the family reached her. Death was attributed to heart ailment. Now, what was it that came to the little lady during the night and talked to her about carrying her away? Was it a mere coincidence?

The father of the young woman is a minister in the Primitive Baptist church, and the family is one of the most prominent in the Stillson community.

Local Committee To Attend Presentation

Turner for the Women's Club, and D. B. Turner.

The broadcast will be over WSB from 6:30 to 6:50 o'clock. Mayor Renfro will speak for Statesboro. The dinner will follow at 8 o'clock at the Capital City Club. Representatives will be present from twenty-four winning Georgia cities.

Maybe the fellow who boasts that he is just as good as he used to be, didn't used to be as good as he thinks he was.

URGES FARMERS HAVE ONE VARIETY

Cotton Specialist Declares Too Many Varieties Cotton Cause Loss to Growers.

Bulloch county cotton farmers should turn from the many varieties of cotton to about two, preferably one, according to C. E. Westbrook, cotton and tobacco specialist, in his talk to about 150 cotton farmers here on Friday of last week.

The cotton mills are seeking for a longer staple than is shown up best here, which makes it necessary for cotton buyers to demand staple in the cotton they purchase for the mills.

Mr. Westbrook recommended the Wamnamaker "Wonderwilt" strain 6 and the Coker Cleverwilt strain 6 as the varieties that had shown up best under local conditions. However, the supply of seed for the county is very limited in these varieties. All the seed that could be bought of these two varieties have been reserved by the farm agent and local representatives.

Both of these varieties of earlier strains have been planted in the county and are found to be adapted. However, the farmers that purchased seed from the breeders in 1935 do not have any surplus left to supply their neighbors at present.

TEACHERS VISIT OTHER COUNTIES

Series of Inspection Trips to Inspect Methods Applied in Neighboring Schools.

During the month of November groups of Bulloch county teachers went to other counties to inspect their methods of teaching in order to improve the schools in Bulloch county. The schools chosen for visiting were Pembroke in Bryan county and Daisy in Evans county. These schools have been rated among the best consolidated schools in Southeast Georgia. The buildings and equipment are about like the average, but the instructional process is beginning to reap products that were above the average. Serious attempts are being made by the superintendent, Mr. S. A. Driggers and Ethel McCormick, Silston; Blanche Fields and Aubrey Pafford, Brooklet; Lincoln Boykin, Leefield; Rupert Parrish and George Wingard, Port; Louis Ellis and Mrs. Paul Nesmith, West Side; Mrs. Doy Gay, Middleburg; Harold Hendrix, Mison; O. E. Gay and Earle Lee, Register; E. W. McElveen and Mrs. R. Faircloth, Warnock; Grace Rimes, Nevils; F. W. Elarise and Grace Turner, Denmark.

STATESBORO FAMILIES Flee From Flames

Fire at 3 o'clock Saturday morning destroyed the large residence on College boulevard occupied by the families of Sam Northcutt, O. M. Sanders and Roger Webb. The flames covered the entire upper part of the house when flames burst in their bedrooms. Practically nothing in the way of household goods was saved from the building.

Occupants of the home were driven into the streets only partially clad by the winter winds, the first freeze of the season, and greatly to the discomfort of the occasion. The building was the property of the Bulloch Loan and Trust Company.

CHURCH LEADERS BEGIN THEIR WORK

Goals for the Year Are Set At Annual Meeting of Officials Tuesday Evening.

At the annual dinner of the official members of the Statesboro Methodist church held in the social room Tuesday evening, goals were established for the work of the church for the coming year. To this end the budget of the church was agreed upon and expenditures for the various church causes were fixed.

At the meeting it was planned to conduct Sunday afternoon an every-member canvass in which the individual members will be given opportunity to voluntarily subscribe the amount they propose to contribute to the church during the year. This canvass will be conducted by the members of the board of stewards beginning from the church at 2:30 o'clock, and it is proposed to compile the canvass and be prepared to compile reports of the work before the evening meeting.

At the Tuesday evening dinner, which was paid for "dutch," twenty or more of the male members, most of them with their wives, were present. This dinner was a delightful affair with no lengthy program to sit through. F. T. Lainer, chairman of the board of stewards, presided and Mr. H. K. Rainey spent some time in explaining the manner and need of the system of giving through the weekly envelopes.

The board of stewards, heretofore organized, consists of the following: Fred T. Lainer, chairman; D. B. Turner, vice-chairman; J. B. Johnson, secretary; J. G. W. Turner, treasurer; G. E. Bean, R. L. Simmons; honorary, Hinton Booth, Chas. E. Cone, S. L. Moore, M. S. Pittman, E. C. Oliver and J. L. Renfro.

Trustees of the church are: Hinton Booth, Alfred Dorman, Chas. E. Cone, E. C. Oliver, Lannie P. Simmons and W. H. Sharpe.

BROOKLET NEWS

MRS. F. W. HUGHES,
Reporter

Rev. H. L. Sneed, of Statesboro, preached at the Methodist church here Sunday to an appreciative congregation.

The children and grandchildren of the J. L. Wyatt family gave Mr. Wyatt a Thanksgiving birthday dinner at his home Thursday.

The Blanche Bradley circle of the Baptist church entertained the other members of the missionary society Monday afternoon with a hen shower at the Baptist parsonage. The proceeds of the entertainment will be added to the building fund of the church. After an enjoyable social hour, Miss Louise Harrison, of Atlanta, presided over the refreshments.

Miss Frances Hughes entertained the MacDowell Music Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. After a short sketch of Edward MacDowell's life by Mrs. W. D. Lee, Miss Ouida Wyatt played, "The MacDowell musical contest" a prize was awarded to Miss Margaret Alderman. Miss Elise Williams assisted the hostess in serving.

A Thanksgiving service that will long be remembered was held at the Baptist church here Wednesday night. Rev. E. L. Harrison, pastor, conducted the meeting, which was a unique one. The minister issued invitations to the service in the form of blank cards which each person might write the things for which he is most thankful. A large crowd was present in response to these invitations. Each one presented hand the minister his slip, which in turn was read to the congregation. It was indeed a happy service.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Miss Juanita Buchanan to Frederick Play Warrick, both of Jacksonville, Fla., on December 18th. Miss Buchanan is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Buchanan, of Jacksonville. She is a young lady of personal charms and exceptional literary qualifications; since her graduation from the University of Florida with an A. B. degree, she has taught in the Jacksonville schools. Mr. Warrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Warrick, of East Point, but formerly of Brooklet. For the past several years Mr. Warrick has held a responsible position with the Ford company in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lee were the honorees of a lovely Thanksgiving shower given by their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lee are among the first settlers of the town of Brooklet where he has been a successful farmer, an appreciated postmaster, an interested Sunday school superintendent of the Methodist church, and is yet an honorary steward of the Methodist church. Mrs. Lee, too, is an outstanding Christian worker. For a number of years she has been active in social service work in her community, helping the sick and relieving the suffering who were in need. She has always been a liberal donor in all worthy causes of the community, and this shower was a personal gift from the many people of the town as a partial token of appreciation of such a couple in the community as Mr. and Mrs. Lee.

STATESBORO BOYS TO MEET VIDALIA
The Statesboro High School champions of the eastern half of the First district will meet the Vidalia champions of the western side of the district, to compete for the district championship, tomorrow (Friday) afternoon in Vidalia. This game is expected to be the best post-season game that has ever been played in this section of the state.

The football fans will see both teams at a hot dog supper for the victors and all enjoyed a good time together. We hope that the West Side boys will visit us again.

There was a 100 per cent attendance of the Portal chapter present that night, a record we are proud of and one we hope to keep up for the rest of the year.

STATESBORO HAS UNITED CHARITIES

Committee to Dispense Aid to Needy After Full Investigation Has Been Made

During the first week of November the city of Statesboro was asked for charities to take care of the poor and unfortunate people of the city. The citizens responded liberally. Food products, clothing and cash to the amount of $337.68 was turned in to the secretary and treasurer, Glenn Bland, at the city hall.

After the canvass a work committee composed of Frank Williams, chairman, Glenn Bland, H. F. Hook, Mrs. J. E. Carruth, Mrs. Wilton Hodges and Mrs. H. L. Speed, was appointed to investigate cases and to distribute the funds as deemed wise. The committee asked Miss Sarah Hall to co-operate in getting the history of cases and general investigation of the needy in Statesboro. It is definitely understood that this work is confined to the city and does not extend to the county.

The purpose of this welfare work is to relieve the immediate needs of the poor, to help find work for the unemployed, and to relieve the public of professional beggars.

The names of those who apply for help and are able to work are taken and a list is kept by Mr. Bland. The citizens are asked to co-operate in an effort to give work to the poor who are out of employment and are urged to co-operate with the city authorities by discouraging house-to-house and street begging. Refer all who are seeking help to Mr. Bland at the city hall.

Daring Robbery Staged at Brooklet

Brooklet, Ga., Dec. 8. — Another bold and daring robbery was staged here a few days ago when the City Drug Company was robbed of all its narcotics and the small amount of money that was in the cash register.

This place of business faces a street light that makes as bright as day the front entrance where the thief went in. He chiseled the door at the lock and broke the lock open.
